Anne is a visionary creative entrepreneur whose passion for knitwear design has left a lasting mark on the fashion industry. After graduating from the prestigious Southend School of Fashion Design, Anne set out to turn her creative vision into reality. In 1984, she founded The House of Lavene, a bespoke couture knitwear design company dedicated to exceptional craftsmanship and innovation.

The House of Lavene has revolutionised the world of machine knitwear, making it accessible to both experienced craftspeople and beginners alike. Their innovative Visual Patterns system empowers individuals to create stunning handloom knitwear on inexpensive domestic machines.
